

Dear Colleague:

As a Chairman and on behalf of “Asian PGPR Society for Sustainable Agriculture”, I invite you to become a member of this premier international society dedicated for promotion of PGPR Science. The purpose of the society is to advance state-of-the-art science through domestic and international meetings that facilitate communication, cooperation and collaboration among scientists involved in the study of PGPR. The members of “Asian PGPR Society” fill the ranks of farmers, academic, industrial, government and non-profit institutions. Your decision to become a Member represents a partnership for progress, future growth, development and innovation through access to the best intellectual and technical talent in the field of PGPR.

The Society actively promotes research, development, funding, and public awareness through the society newsletters and website which provide members with the opportunity to actively participate in the development of rapidly expanding fields of PGPR. On the international front, we have conducted our First Asian PGPR Congress at ANGRAU, Hyderabad, India (June, 2009); Second Asian PGPR Conference at Beijing, China (August, 2011) and 3rd Asian PGPR Congress (April 21-24, 2013) in Manila, Philippines with great success. More than 200 participants attended these Conferences from several Asian countries including India. We are committed to organize this kind of meetings every two years with in Asian countries and the 4th Asian PGPR Congress is scheduled to be held in 2015 (May 3-6) at Hanoi, Vietnam.

To support research and development in PGPR science, we ask you to become a Member of The Asian PGPR Society. Together, we can make 2014 and beyond an exceptional years. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me at (334)559-1971 or via email at munagrs@auburn.edu.

Thank you for your consideration and we look forward to partnering with you.

Dr. M. S. Reddy
